Please Read Carefully Before Ordering

OUR STOCK. We supply first class stock of Bearded Iris rhizomes which will bloom the first season. Our Daffodil, Dahlia, Dutch Iris, and Ranunculus are all large size, top quality, carefully selected varieties from each color class.

SHIPMENTS are made as follows:

Bearded Iris — June 1st to October 1st.

Dahlias — February 15th to early May.

Daffodils, Dutch Iris and Ranunculus — September 15th to January 1st.

GIFTS may be selected any time throughout the year. A card will be sent for the birthday or "special occasion", and the gift will be shipped at the proper planting time.

MINIMUM ORDER — Due to increased costs of doing business, we cannot accept BULB orders for less than $2.50.

POSTAGE will be prepaid on shipments to points west of the Rocky Mountains. Add 10% to cover extra postage for shipments to all other places.

SALES TAX. Add 3% California Sales Tax to all orders to be delivered in California.

TERMS. Remittance should accompany all orders, unless credit has been established.

ORDER EARLY. Please order early to prevent disappointment. For late orders, in case we are sold out, please advise if we may make substitutions of equal or better value.

- DREAM CASTLE. Deep orchid pink of casual grace, with cloud-white beard, tipped gold. Large flowers of full, rounded form. Blooms and increases generously. $1.50; 3 for $4.00
- DREAMLAND. A pretty hollyhock red. Good form and growing habits. $1.00; 3 for $2.50
- DUET. Always popular with our garden visitors. Honey-gold standards with a suggestion of pink. Violet falls, edged with the color of the standards. 60c; 3 for $1.50
- ELMOHR. Spectacular, beautifully rounded, ruffled blossoms of hugh size, in a delightful reddish-mulberry color. Effective veining. Won highest award in 1945. $1.00; 3 for $2.50
- ESQUIRE. A tall, dark iris of arresting beauty. The solid, rich blue-purple extends deep into the throat. Perfect form. $1.00; 3 for $2.50
- FAIR ELAINE. Appealing iris of regal form. Pale primrose to creamy white standards rise above gold-yellow falls 60c; 3 for $1.50
- FANTASY. Striking new orchid pink. Unlike the other new pinks as the color is more of a raspberry shade. Well formed blooms of good size have a brilliant orange-red beard. $5.00; 3 for $12.50
- FIRECRACKER. Bright burgundy-red plicata with yellow markings. Falls have an effective dash of pure yellow. Extremely hardy. $1.50; 3 for $4.00
- FRANK ADAMS. Fawn pink standards. Strawberry-rose falls. Large flowers of fine form. 60c; 3 for $1.50
- FRIEDA MOHR. One of the earliest introductions which has withstood all competition in the orchid pink class. Blossoms of classic form are properly placed on stately stalks. Very fragrant. 60c; 3 for $1.50
- GARDEN GLORY. Near to a true ruby red, with smooth haft and enameled finish. A low growing favorite. $1.50; 3 for $4.00
- GARDEN MAGIC. Dark, velvety maroon-red. Sizeable flowers on well branched stems of medium height. Hardy in adverse weather. 75c; 3 for $2.00
- GIBSON GIRL. Attractive plicata. Rosy helitrope trimming on light yellow background. Nice form and branching. Flowers freely, sometimes out of season. $1.00; 3 for $2.50
- GOLD BROCADE. We value this delightful yellow, as it is the first to bloom in our garden. A striking flower arrangement is achieved by using Gold Brocade with Berkeley Blue. They both bloom very early. $1.00; 3 for $2.50
- GOLD DUST. A really outstanding, bright yellow plicata. Both standards and falls are a rich golden yellow, flushed and dotted deep brown. Perfectly formed blooms have excellent texture, and are beautifully placed on nicely branched 36 inch stems. Vigorous grower and increaser. Our 1952 introduction. $7.50
- GOLDEN MAJESTY. This golden yellow is of top notch quality. The large flowers do not fade. Reliable bloomer in severest climates. 60c; 3 for $1.50
- GOLDEN RUFFLES. Stunning, ruffled yellow. Gracefully fluted blossoms in abundance $1.50; 3 for $4.00
- GRACE MOHR. Seedling of William Mohr. Onco-cyclus hybrid. Big, beautifully rounded petals of lavender-violet have lovely veining in a deeper shade. Popular. 75c; 3 for $2.00
- GRAND CANYON. Subdued rock tones of violet-plum and copper-gold. Gold accents at beard and haft. Ruffled flowers. 75c; 3 for 2.00

- GRECIAN ROBE. Big, soft yellow blooms. Tall stems and luxuriant foilage. Blooms early. Greatly admired in our garden.....$2.00; 3 for $5.00
- GREEN PASTURES. Interesting, because its chartreuse color is entirely different from that of any other iris. Pleasing form.....$2.00; 3 for $5.00
- GYPSY. A warm and charming effect is achieved by the coppery orange-gold standards, and the finely textured chestnut brown falls. Late.....75c; 3 for $2.00
- GYPSY ROSE. Large, well formed blooms in shades of rich, coppery red. Tall, well branched stems.....75c; 3 for $2.00
- HAPPY BIRTHDAY. Considered by many to be the best of the new pinks. Clear, deep pink, with dark orange-red beard. Large, perfectly formed blooms are beautifully ruffled. Vigorous grower and good increaser.....$12.00
- HAPPY DAYS. This lovely soft yellow flowers early and really seems to bring the happiness of spring. Blooms and increases generously. Immensely popular.....60c; 3 for $1.50; 10 for $4.50
- HELEN MCGREGOR. Large, ruffled, clear light blue that received the highest award in 1949. Hardy in severest climate.....$2.00; 3 for $5.00
- HIGH COMMAND. Splendid new variety from England. Primrose yellow standards present a striking contrast to the handsome, full flaring falls of velvety dark mahogany. Rugged.....$1.50; 3 for $4.00
- ICE KING. Immense, stately, and beautifully ruffled white is enhanced by a decided blue undertone. Light blue buds and a pure white beard. Fragrant. Vigorous.....$1.00; 3 for $2.50
- ICY BLUE. Exceptionally tall, light glacier blue, frosted white. Popular.....70c; 3 for $1.50
- INSPIRATION. An import from New Zeland that has been received with enthusiasm. Vibrant crimson rose self with giant blooms of exquisite form.....$1.00; 3 for $2.50
- JUNALUSKA. Very popular "blended red". Composed of copper gold standards, and bronze maroon falls. Blooms early and over a long period. Strong grower and rapid increaser.....60c; 3 for $1.50
- LADY BOSCAWEN. Unusually hardy, large, pure alabaster white of elegant ruffled form.....$1.00; 3 for $2.50
- LADY MOHR. A queen in the iris world. Bred from the famous Mohr line, the exotic coloring of this daughter is entirely unique. Standards, luminous oyster shell white, faintly tinted mauve. Falls, pale chartreuse, with decorative veining, and a dash of red-violet at the haft. Flowers of finely sculptured form. Stems tall and attractively branched. Blooms freely over a long period. Withstands extreme cold, heat, wind, and rain. A "must" for the iris fan. One of our finest introductions.....$1.00; 3 for $2.50
- LADY OF SHALOT. Pastel pink plicata of illusive charm. Standards, heavily flushed rose pink. Falls, creamy white, edged and brushed pink. Always hardy.....75c; 3 for $2.00
- LOS ANGELES. Notable white plicata. Trimly feathered and edged blue. Style arms also blue.....60c; 3 for $1.50
- LUCERNE. The smooth, deep blue flowers have the serene beauty of a quiet lake. A plant with perfect proportions. Blooms profusely. Salbach introduction.....65c; 3 for $1.75
- MAGIC CARPET. Rose and cream plicata of generous size and flaring form. The rose trim is dashed on a golden cream background.....75c; 3 for $2.00

- MEERSCHAUM. Unusual meerschaum pipe color, with prominent veining in a darker shade. Salbach introduction.....65c; 3 for $1.75
- MELLOWGLOW. One of the finest iris. Ruffled blooms in rich apricot-peach, with a pink blush. Smooth finish. Prolific.....$1.50
- MELODY LANE. Introducing a delicious new color to the iris rainbow,—glistening golden apricot, with bright tangerine orange beard. Delicately ruffled flowers. $3.50
- MEXICO. Pleasing color combination. Golden buff standards. Warm red-brown falls, bordered golden buff. Form reminds one of a Mexican straw hat. Late.....$1.00; 3 for $2.50
- MINNIE COLQUITT. An entirely different plicata. Huge, well shaped petals are white in the center, with a rich, stitched edging of wine-purple....$1.00; 3 for $2.50
- MISS CALIFORNIA. Lovely, large rose pink blooms on elegantly tall, 48 inch stems. Grows vigorously in all parts of the country. Salbach introduction.....60c; 3 for $1.50
- MISSOURI. Classic medium blue. Distinct because of the artistic touch of brown on the top curve of the falls.....60c; 3 for $1.50
- MME. LOUIS AUREAU. Popular French variety. Silvery white, with feathered edgings of rosy heliotrope.....60c; 3 for $1.50
- MOONLIGHT SONATA. Enchantingly different lime-yellow with beard of the same shade. Finely notched petals add to its charm.....$3.00
- MORNING BLUE. Fine blue onco-hybrid in shades of clear lavender blue, with deeper blue veining on both standards and falls. Standards, large and round. Broad, semi-flaring falls of good substance. Tall, well branched stems. Free bloomer, and sturdy grower. One of the best.....$2.50; 3 for $6.50
- MOUNT WASHINGTON. Magnificent white with golden beard and haft markings. Large, tall, and hardy. Wild plum fragrance.....65c; 3 for $1.75
- MULBERRY ROSE. This delightfully different rose-mulberry color has life to it, and is particularly effective in the garden planting.....75c; 3 for $2.00
- NARADA. A clear light blue, with fine large blooms in profusion. We had a row 15 feet long and 3 feet wide that produced over 150 bloom stalks. Increases rapidly. Splendid for mass planting. Late.....60c; 3 for $1.50
- NASSAK. Very large, blue white plicata with bright blue stitching. Well branched, 40 inch stems. Hardy in severest climate.....60c; 3 for $1.50
- OLA KALA. Intensely deep yellow, almost orange. Flaring, lightly frilled and waved flowers on tall stems. Winner of highest award in 1948.....$1.00; 3 for $2.50
- OLD ROSE. Pure old rose, except that falls shade to cardinal near the haft. Beautiful blooms held high above the foliage. Salbach introduction....60c; 3 for $1.50
- ORANGE FLAME. A fascinating iris that brings a real thrill when it blooms. Burnished golden orange standards. Radiant coppery red falls. Salbach introduction. 60c; 3 for $1.50
- ORANGE SOVEREIGN. This new deep orange self is a recent introduction from New Zealand. Has fine growing habits, and holds its color, even in hottest weather. Destined to become very popular.....$5.00
- ORCHID LADY. Tall, late flowering orchid-lilac pink of fashionable form. Especially beautiful in flower arrangements, as it lasts well when cut, and the pink shade comes alive under artificial light. Salbach introduction.....60c; 3 for $1.50

OREGON TRAIL. The softly blended desert tones of salmon, coffee brown, gold, and touch of violet are of lasting beauty. Fine blossoms have firm substance.

75c; 3 for $2.00

ORIENTAL GLORY. (Formerly listed as Oriental Splendor.) This is our finest introduction in thirty years of breeding iris. The color combination is dramatic. Standards, velvety mahogany red. Falls, very rich, deep chestnut brown, shading to gold near the haft, with brilliant blue blaze in the center of the falls. Bright orange yellow beard. Perfectly formed blooms are handsomely held on a plant of fine proportions. Growing habits are excellent. Oriental Glory has all the superior qualities of a top ranking iris.

$10.00; 3 for $25.00

ORMOHR. Exceptionally large, outstanding onco-hybrid of breath-taking beauty. Silvery lilac with violet veining. Somewhat rounded blooms nicely held on 40 inch stems. Very popular.

60c; 3 for $1.50

OZONE. This pearly mauve to lavender iris has a flower center brushed with soft coppery brown.

60c; 3 for $1.50

PACIFIC SUNSET. Good sized blooms in blended shades of rose, gold, and copper. Salbach introduction.

60c; 3 for $1.50

PAINTED DESERT. Warm sand and rock tones capture the beauty of the Arizona mesa. Buff, tan, and brown, with violet tint on the standard midribs and top of the hafts.

75c; 3 for $2.00

PALOMINO. Strikingly handsome flowers of large size and unusual coloring. Standards are clear pink. Falls are pale ivory, with a distinct edging of amber-copper. Related to the new pinks, and has the characteristic tangerine-orange beard. A completely intriguing iris.

$15.00

PEACH GLOW. Very pleasing peach pink. Medium size.

75c; 3 for $2.00

PERSIAN PRINCE. Vivid contrast of colors. Bright yellow standards, and rich chestnut brown falls. Definitely a brilliant clump.

65c; 3 for $1.75

PIERRE MENARD. Finest of the new medium toned blues. Standards are clear hyacinth-blue, with falls a slightly deeper shade. A free bloomer and a vigorous grower.

$5.00

PINK CAMEO. Delicate cameo-pink self, with tangerine-orange beard for contrast. A true pale pink, no lavender cast. Exquisite blossoms.

$1.50

PINK REFLECTION. Intriguing chamois-pink color, with hint of buff in the undertone. Late.

75c; 3 for $2.00

PINK SENSATION. True delicate light pink with captivating form. Blooms, full and rounded, lightly ruffled, with lacinated petal edges. Tangerine orange beard. Early.

$7.50

PINNACLE. This arresting creation comes from New Zealand. Entirely new color combination. Cool white standards contrast, yet harmonize, with primrose-yellow falls. Classic form. An exciting addition to any iris collection.

$4.00

PRAIRIE SUNSET. Gloriously blended apricot-peach, amber, copper, pink, and glow of gold, paint an "iris sunset". Dykes Medal winner 1943. Original price was $100.00 each.

$1.00; 3 for $2.50

PURISSIMA. One of the first to bloom. The old-fashioned charm and ideal form of this extremely tall iris keep it in demand, even in competition with newer whites. Needs winter protection in cold climates.

60c; 3 for $1.50

DAHLIAS

Plant February 15th to early May

NEW DAHLIAS

AMI GEORGE (Cactus). An exquisite new dahlia from Holland. Delicate shade of pink with a dash of antique gold at the center. Regal stems hold the flowers high above the foliage.

COMMERCIAL PINK (Informal decorative). A beauty with exceptional charm. The petals are a true pink, and gracefully waved. Perfect blossoms of medium size are held on strong stems. Blooms profusely. Keeps longer when cut than any dahlia we have ever grown. Stock limited. A Salbach introduction.

FERNIES TRIUMPH (Informal decorative). A glowing orange-red dahlia of distinction. In our opinion, one of the finest new introductions from Holland.

INSPECTEUR VANDE PLASSCHE. (Informal decorative). Brilliant deep carmine red, tipped white.

NORTHIAM (Cactus). Attractive, large blooms of crimson scarlet are stylishly held on long, straight stems.

WILLIAM ROPKE (Semi-cactus). Dazzling orange, which shades to yellow at the petal tips. Medium sized flowers on a compact bush bloom in profusion. A striking spot of color in the garden.

Any of the above: $1.50 each

LARGE FLOWERING DAHLIAS

ANNA BENEDICT (Decorative). Glowing, deep maroon.

BALLEGO'S GLORY. (Decorative). Vivid scarlet red, petals gold tipped.

BERGER'S MASTERPIECE (Incurved cactus). Enchanting smoky pink, enhanced by a suggestion of chestnut in the center.

CLARA CARDER (Decorative). Definitely a "must" for a dahlia garden! Blooms are a delightful shade of pink, and measure 12 inches. Profuse producer of blossoms and tubers.

CLARA CLEMMENS (Ball type). Dark red petals, smartly tipped pure white.

D'ARCY SAINSBURY (Decorative). A frosty white of majestic form. Strong stems support perfectly shaped 10 inch flowers.

JANE COWL (Decorative). Superb orange-gold, blending to a pure apricot at the center. A warm toned dahlia that you will treasure.

MARGRACE (Decorative). Attracts immediate attention in the garden. Petals bright orange-red, slightly tipped gold. There is also a gold suffusion throughout the flower.

MAYOR OTIS (Informal decorative). Gigantic blooms of copper-bronze. One of the largest dahlias ever grown.

PASADENA (Decorative). A soft pastel pink. Truly lovely.

SATAN (Semi-cactus). This stunning dahlia is an unusual shade of flame-red. Petals spiral gracefully. Float two in a wide, shallow bowl, with a touch of green foliage, for a simple, but striking flower arrangement.

YELLOW SPIRAL (Semi-cactus). A fascinating lemon yellow of large size. The petals are artistic in form and arrangement. Dramatic effect on the bush. Excellent cut flower. A Salbach introduction.

Any of the above — $1.25 each

MINATURE DAHLIAS

ARABESQUE (Cactus). Free flowering, soft yellow.

FAVOURITE (Cactus). Very pleasing apricot. Fine cut flower.

GERRIE HOECK (Waterlily type). Delicate pink. Fine for flower arrangements.

PASSEPARTOUT (Decorative). Intense, fiery red. Excellent cut flower.

SALBACH'S ORANGE (Cactus). Deep orange.

WHITE FAWN (Decorative). Small snow white. Easy to arrange, and stays fresh a long time indoors.

Any of the above: $1.00 each

DAHLIA SEED

We have grown dahlia seed for over twenty years, and each year we select the finest seed from our gardens. Plants from this seed bloom the first year, and produce tubers that can be planted the next season.

Customers write of the thrill they get out of watching these seedlings bloom. Many of these dahlias have been outstanding enough to be named and introduced commercially.

LARGE FLOWERING DAHLIA SEED. Gathered from the finest varieties and best seed parents.

YOUR INVITATION TO VISIT

Our Display Garden

VISITORS WELCOME—Come early and stay late. Enjoy the breathtaking beauty of a field of iris in bloom. The perfection of the individual flowers, and the amazing array of colors will give you a delightful experience.

PEAK BLOOM—The height of our blooming season is from late April to mid-May.

HOW TO FIND US—The Salbach Gardens are located on the eastern slope of the North Berkeley Hills.

Leaving downtown Berkeley, drive out Spruce Street to the water reservoir. Continue down Spruce Street 300 feet to the intersection of Canyon Road and Woodmont Avenue. Drive up Woodmont approximately 1/3 of a mile to the Salbach Gardens.
